Note from the Editor

Hello fellow AIS region 15 members!

It sure has been a wet start to the year! As of March 1st, I got 7.7 inches so far in 2023, and 11.7 inches since September 2022. The storm the last week of February sure was a cold one. I read that places in LA got snow, and I saw some of it on the mountains to the east of Irvine. We got some graupel and learned a new word at the same time (although some family members think it is the same thing as hail). Sadly, it does not seem this was enough for our deserts to have a super-bloom, although there was a rare winter bloom that was triggered by the remnants of Tropical Storm Kay - some places apparently got 4 inches, while I only got 0.2 inches from that storm.

It was nice to see some of you at the Fall 2022 meeting at the Huntington. Well done, HDIDS! That iris quilt sure was beautiful! I hear rumors that there will be another quilt at the spring trek - if true it is not to be missed. I got the last of the speaker's door prize rhizomes: 'Runaway Bride' (David Toth, 2022) with lucky ticket ending in 626 (any Lilo and Stitch fans out there?). I also ended up with the collection of Sutton ornaments from the raffle - putting almost all of your tickets towards one item can definitely pay off. I gifted some of them and the rest decorate my cubicle at work. It is always interesting to learn how to properly pronounce cities and names, such as Toth rhyming with "both" not "moth" or Prescott rhyming with biscuit (at least I hope I remembered that one right).

I am hoping the rains will result in lots of iris blooms. Naturally, the two years that SDIS did not have a show due to the pandemic were the two best iris bloom seasons I have ever had. My irises were shy in 2022 - not a single stalk was in bloom for our show, but hopefully they will make a strong comeback this year.

I hope you, your families, your loved ones and your members are healthy and doing well. Consider ways you can help your club flourish, suggest ideas for getting the public interested in irises, and volunteer your time if you can. The relationships we make and maintain enrich our lives in ways we never saw coming.

AIS Region 15 RVP Message

By Janis Shackelford, Region 15 RVP

Hello Irisarians,

January was an atmospheric river - raining and especially cold and the cold continues in February with another atmospheric river. The spring and summer cultivars are still waiting for a warmup, but my reblooming irises are blooming right now. Currently, I have 'Gene Machine,' 'Concertina' and 'Orangelo' blooming right now and 'Desert Roundelay' and 'Faithful' are now sending up stalks.

I was going to report on the outcome of putting ice and ice water on 'Lady Jean.' 'Lady Jean' bloomed in October last year and I looked back at my records. Normally, it bloomed in November or December, so the ice did have an effect. You could experiment and add ice to a reblooming cultivar in the summer and see when it blooms if you keep records.

This year, the AIS is offering a special. If you join or upgrade your AIS membership (at the full membership rate), they will send you a certificate for membership in a section or cooperating society - your choice!

This year's AIS Convention will be hosted by the Iris Society of Dallas, April 12-16, 2023. It will be in a historic town, Grapevine, Texas, and will be occurring before our next Spring Trek.

Please look on the AIS website, under conventions, for more information.

Now, the Trek Wheel.

Inland will commit to the Spring Trek in 2024. Tucson will not commit to the Fall Trek in 2024. Sun Country will not commit to the Spring Trek in 2025 or 2026, since they only have one garden right now. So now we will have to find a club to commit to the Fall Trek in 2024, and a club to commit to the Spring Trek in 2025. I am notifying the clubs in advance of this year's Spring Trek meeting, so you will be able to go to your Board and ask if they are willing to host a Trek. If not, we will have to decide what to do with future Treks.

Janis

AIS Judges Training

By Beth Balaney-Train, Region 15 Asst. RVP

and Judges Training Chair

Hello Region 15! I hope you are keeping warm and dry in this long, cold, and wet winter. As I write this, it is 37 degrees outside. It may not seem like it, but spring is just around the corner. With all this rain, I am looking forward to a beautiful and bountiful spring bloom season! The wildflower fields should be in peak bloom soon; the irises ready (fingers crossed) for the iris shows, treks and sales.

Congratulations! The AIS Board approved the advancement of two apprentices to G/E and two students to apprenticeship. Likewise, the Region now has 5 judges certified for Artistic Design. If you are interested in becoming an Artistic Design judge, let me know. The requirements for certification are in this issue, on the Region 15 website and in the judges handbook.

The Region has 20 G/E Judges, 7 Master Judges, 1 Emeritus Judge, 5 Artistic Design Judges, 3 Apprentices, and 9 students.

Region 15 is in need of more judges! I encourage Region 15 members to sign up in the Judge's Training Program. It is both fun and educational. Anyone may enter the Judge's Training Program by filling out an application form, which is at the Region 15 website: region15ais.org. Please make sure that you immediately become an AIS member, since membership is a requirement for all persons in the training program. When a student signs an application for the training program, the student will have three years to obtain the 10 hours of training. I keep track of student hours and fill out advancement reports in the fall. While students are not required to submit activity reports, it is a good habit to develop as you will be required to report your training hours as a judge.

Judges and students, please take advantage of training sessions offered in your area, during the regional treks and meetings, and at the national conventions. Visit as many iris gardens as you can this spring and attend JT sessions when available, either in person or online. AIS JT Webinars on Zoom are offered periodically. Past AIS JT Webinars are available to view for free on the AIS YouTube Channel. Don't forget to keep track of your activities and be ready to send your reports in August.

I have approved the following JT sessions: "How to Put on an Iris Show," February 7, 2023 in Riverside, CA for 1.5 hrs credit (IRIS); "Grooming and Exhibiting in the Iris Show," March 7, 2023 in Phoenix, AZ for 1.0 hr credit (SCIS); "Spuria Irises," March 12, 2023 in Lakeside, CA for 1.0 hr credit (SDIS); and "Artistic Design," April 4, 2023 in Phoenix, AZ (SCIS).

Please take note of your AIS membership expiry dates. All judges, accredited or in training, are required to be current AIS members. Check your AIS membership at www.irises.org/web-based-lookup/.

Thank you HDIDS for hosting the well-attended Region 15 Fall Meeting. The program was great, the food delicious, the company delightful. Mason and I likewise enjoyed visiting the different gardens and numerous museums at the Huntington after the meeting.

I look forward to seeing you at the Region 15 Spring Trek hosted by the San Fernando Valley Iris Society. I plan to attend the AIS National Convention in Grapevine, TX, so I will likely see you there, too.

Wishing you all a gorgeous iris bloom season this spring!

APPOINTMENT OF ARTISTIC DESIGN JUDGES

AIS Handbook for Judges and Show Officials, Edition 8.22, Chapter 1, Pages 7-8

GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION AS ARTISTIC DESIGN JUDGE

A person interested in becoming certified as an artistic design judge should notify the appropriate regional AIS judges training chair and ask about the region's policies regarding this category of judge.

To qualify for this certification, the person must already be an AIS accredited judge. In some cases, an AIS member with vast experience in artistic design or with other floral certifications may qualify for this certification. Eligibility will be determined by the regional AIS judges training chair.

The person must have the current edition of the AIS Handbook for Judges and Show Officials in order to study the chapter on Artistic Design.

Training hours required:

- One hour covering Principles of Design, Chapter 27 in the AIS Handbook.
- One hour covering the Scale of Points, Chapter 27 in the AIS Handbook.
- Two hours of instruction that cover the rest of Chapter 27 in the AIS Handbook.
- Two hours of apprenticeship, watching judging of artistic designs at a show.
- Two hours of actual hands-on designing with a design judge (AIS or National Council of State Garden Clubs) or proof of winning a Best Design of Show or a Best of Design Sweepstakes.

Tests given at training sessions must be passed and reported to their regional AIS judges training chair.

An activity report must be completed on a yearly basis until all requirements are met. There is no time limit for completing the eight hours of training. The RVPs will collect the activity report information and pass it along to the appropriate regional AIS judges training chair in a process similar to other judge categories (G/E. master. etc.)

Once a certificate is issued for AIS artistic design judge has been given, nothing else is required unless the Principles of Design change, which is unlikely.

APPOINTMENT OF ARTISTIC DESIGN JUDGES

AIS Handbook for Judges and Show Officials, Edition 8.22, Chapter 1, Pages 8-9

GUIDELINES FOR BEING GRANDFATHERED IN AS AN ARTISTIC DESIGN JUDGE

Any AIS judge or other floral society member judge may be grandfathered in as an AIS artistic design judge if specific requirements have been met. Being a florist may or may not qualify. Qualification will depend on how familiar the person is with the chapter on Artistic Design (Chapter 27, edition 8.0), in the AIS Handbook for Judges, especially when specific florist design techniques are not in line with the principles outlined in Chapter 27.

A person interested in being grandfathered in as an artistic design judge should notify the appropriate regional AIS judges training chair and ask about the region's policies regarding this category of judge.

The person must have the current edition of the AIS Handbook for Judges and Show Officials and be familiar with the chapter on Artistic Design (Chapter 27 in Edition 8.0), specifically the Artistic Design Point Scale. A written statement that verifies this requirement will be requested by the regional AIS judges training chair.

To demonstrate love of judging design, the regional AIS judges training chair will request proof of the person's record of judging artistic design shows, leading design training sessions, attending design training sessions, awards for Best Design of Show or artistic sweepstakes, or other relevant activities.

The person may be contacted by an AIS judge or the regional judges training chair to answer other questions before being grandfathered in as an artistic design judge.

Once a certificate for AIS artistic design judge has been given, nothing else is required unless the Principles of Design change, which is unlikely.

American Iris Society Membership Drive 2023

REMEMBERING RICHARD JAMISON

Richard Jamison passed away at age 85 on November 29, 2022 in Antelope Acres, CA. He will forever be remembered as a beloved Husband and Father. He was also a loving Grandfather, Great Grandfather and a Great Great Grandfather of far too many to count. He took great pride in the beautiful family he and Norma built. Richard was a man of great wisdom, incredible experience and the pure love of an understanding heart. His sense of humor and stories told will never be forgotten and the legacy he leaves behind is one to be cherished by many.

Richard was born on December 13, 1936. He retired from the Los Angeles County Sheriff Department after 30 years. Then, he was a teacher at the Antelope Valley College for 25 years.

He and Norma built a home in Antelope Acres with a garden full of irises. There were numerous TBs, many BBs, a few IBs and some LAs. He was the President of Hi-Desert Iris and Daylily Society from 2006 to 2008. Throughout the years, Richard and Norma had donated anywhere between 500 to 2000 rhizomes per year for sale to Hi-Desert Iris and Daylily Society. He and Norma opened their garden for the 2008 Region 15 Spring Trek. During the 2017 Region 15 Spring Trek, we enjoyed the guest irises in his garden with a fabulous lunch.

We will always remember Richard for the many years of dedication and service to the people. He built many friendships along the way that he kept until the end. He will be missed terribly and forever in our hearts.

REGION 15 PRESIDENTS' REPORTS

Hi Desert Iris and Daylily Society Report

By Sue Brown, President

Spring is coming. With rain in January and February, the experts are predicting a super bloom in the coming months. I hope their prediction was correct. Because of the rain, my garden has many new growths. In the Antelope Valley, many night temperatures are at freezing or below. I am so glad that, unlike other plants in my garden, irises can tolerate freezing temperatures. The rain also bring in weeds. I pull them. After another rainy day, the weeds are back. It is a losing battle. The Antelope Valley was dusted with snow last night. It was so beautiful as I looked out of the window with snow on top of Joshua trees.

As of our February meeting, we have 47 adult members and 3 youths. 17 of us are AIS members.

We had a holiday party at the Antelope Acres Community Center for the December meeting. We all had fun. The food was delicious. There was a gift exchange. Many of us came to the party wearing holiday sweaters for the contest. There were prizes for the ugliest, cutest and prettiest.

Cheryl and Allie Deaton presented a program on irises for our January meeting. There was a demonstration on how to prepare a stalk of iris for the show.

Carol Collins from Antelope Valley chapter of the Audubon Society came for the February meeting and presented a slide show on plants that attract pollinators. It was very informative because she included gardens in the high desert.

The March meeting is all about preparation for the Show & Sale. The last time we had one was in 2019. We all needed a refresher course.

Our Show & Sale is scheduled on April 29 & 30 at the Elks Lodge. It is a new location for us.

Orange County Iris and Daylily Club Report

By Derry Gerald, President

Hello everyone. I always say, "I hate the rain, but I won't complain because we need it." Now I say, 'ENOUGH ALREADY!'

There is a war in my garden - weeds against the flowers. My bulbs are blooming or about to. The daffodils always make me smile. The iris are growing well. I have great hopes for a wonderful bloom season.

Our election resulted in: Derry Gerald, president; Bobby Hogancamp, vice-president; Frank Hogancamp, treasurer, and Peggy Sheldon, secretary. Our very long time treasurer and editor needed to retire. Our many thanks for many, many years of service go out to her.

We are still a very small group now, but we are making plans for our new year. Our March meeting will be all about bees. We will be having member only auctions for both iris and daylilies for our gardens. Bobbie is busy lining up future speakers for our fun filled year.

Hope to see you soon at the Region trek.

Love, Derry

Lompoc Valley Iris Society Report

By Judy Lauriello, Secretary

The Lompoc Valley Iris Society had another successful year. Our membership numbers are currently at 38. Our club continues to reach out to our local community. At the October meeting, Jennifer Watkins, one of our members, reported that she had donated 15 iris to the Horticulture Club of Cabrillo High School here in Lompoc. As a result, Lompoc Valley Iris Society will be offering student membership to the Horticulture Club members at a discounted rate. A few of our members offered to sponsor some students as well.

Our first meeting of the year is always a dinner with spouses and guests invited to attend. This year, the dinner was held at the Mission Club restaurant here in Lompoc. The venue was lovely, the food was delicious and we had a marvelous turnout. One of our members, Tagen Baker, was in charge of our annual photo contest this year. She took it upon herself to create beautiful calendars using photos that were submitted for the contest. Tagen had these calendars available for members at the dinner. They were well received.

At our upcoming meeting in March, we will be discussing the details of our Annual Garden Tour held the last weekend of April. We have enjoyed a great turnout at this event for the last 2 years. Several of our members offer their gardens for viewing. One of our members, Ken Ainsle, has hundreds of iris planted at the Clairmont Lavender Farm in Los Olivos, CA. With permission of the owners, Meryl Ann Tanz and Sean Crowder, we will be including the farm as part of our Annual Garden Tour in 2023.

Additionally, the Lompoc Valley Iris Society is diligently planning for the Fall Trek we are hosting in October. Our club is eagerly anticipating this event. We are also looking forward to our annual picnic in June, our Rhizome Sale in July, as well as our August potluck and society iris exchange. We are ready for an active and memorable 2023 for the Lompoc Valley Iris Society.

Inland Region Iris Society Report

By Beth Train, President

Rain, sleet, hail, graupel, snow! I've seen it all, sometimes all in one day. I hope you are keeping warm and dry.

The weather's been so cold it is hard to imagine that spring will ever come but fear not: crocuses, iris reticulatas, daffodils, hyacinths and other spring bulbs have started blooming. Median irises and tall bearded irises will follow soon.

Fall rebloom season was off to a good start. IRIS members participated in our club's annual Reblooming Iris Display. Winter rebloom was less than stellar - there was too much rain and temperatures were too low to encourage rebloom. Anyhow, we are hopeful that the weather will warm up soon in time for our IRIS SHOW on April 8th.

Fall was a busy time for our dedicated and hard-working iris members. A loyal customer, who had to downsize her vast iris collection because of water restrictions, donated hundreds of rhizomes to our club, which members dug and potted. Members also planted rhizomes in the iris beds in early winter. Kudos and many thanks to the members!

The December Christmas Party and Gift Exchange went well. We had fun, ate too much, and enjoyed the Cookie Exchange (photo of Beth sampling the cookies at right). The next meeting was February 2023. I presented a JT program on "How To Put On An Iris Show."

You are invited to attend IRIS meetings and events. Our meetings are held at the Janet Goeske Senior Center in Riverside, CA with a 6 pm start time – potluck dinner followed by the business meeting, then the program at around 7 pm or so. Programs and events for this year are:

- March 7 — Demonstration and Hands-On Training on Preparing Iris Bloom Stalks for the Iris Show, by Carol Morgan and Beverley Fortune
- April 4 — "Artistic Floral Design Using Irises," demo class by Ron Lang (NGC)
- April 8 — IRIS SHOW and Potted Iris SALE at the Jurupa Mountains Discovery Center (JMDC), Granite Hill Drive, Riverside, CA
- April 29-30 — Rhizome and Potted Iris Sale at the Riverside Community Flower Show and Garden Tour, Elk's Lodge, Brockton Avenue, Riverside, CA
- May 2 — "Let's Get Buggy with Rocking Lady Bugs." Back by popular demand, Penny Culbertson guides members on how to paint lady bugs on rocks
- June 6 — "Beach Party Bingo"

Thank you Hi Desert Iris and Daylily Society for hosting the Fall Meeting last October. Several IRIS members attended. We enjoyed meeting and seeing fellow Region 15 affiliates.

I am looking forward to the Spring Trek hosted by the San Fernando Valley. I hope to see most of you there.

Save the date: April 20, 2024! IRIS will host the Region 15 Spring Trek at the JMDC.

Be safe. Be healthy. See you at the iris gardens.

San Diego Iris Society Report

By Claire Schneider, President

Hello, everyone!

We are off to a great start in 2023. Anna Cadd gave a program on artistic design at our January meeting. She drove 11 hours all the way to San Diego, bringing a slide program and multiple boxes of floral supplies. After her slide program, all the club members were invited to create their own artistic design using her floral supplies plus flowers SDIS had provided. While our members worked, Anna moved around the room, making careful and subtle suggestions that ultimately improved each arrangement. "Try moving this flower to the other side" and "perhaps if you turned your vase this way" were examples of her gentle suggestions. Her final message was that every club show should include an artistic design division. Anna, we got the message!! Thank you for a terrific lesson!!

On February 11th, SDIS celebrated its 60th anniversary. It was a great party (photos at right). We invited Jim Hedgecock to repeat his "Shoot Out Between Tall Bearded and Spuria Iris" program. Remember that he gave this program at the 2021 Fall Meeting in Prescott, AZ? He showed beautiful pictures and gave lots of advice. Everyone enjoyed it, including those of us who saw him in Prescott.

On March 12th, there will be a follow-up program on spuria at the Lakeside Historical Society, 9906 Maine Ave, Lakeside, CA. Because of the upcoming Region 15 Spring Trek and the AIS Convention in Dallas, the SDIS Board decided to cancel the April meeting. Our Spring Show and Sale 2023 will be held in room 101 of Casa del Prado, Balboa Park, San Diego on May 6 and 7. The last meeting of the 2022-2023 season will be June 11th at the Lakeside Historical Society, where awards from the spring show will be given. SDIS does not meet in July or August.

Our Fall Rhizome sales will be held September 9, 10, 16 and 17 in room 101 of Casa del Prado, Balboa Park, San Diego.

San Fernando Valley Iris Society Report

By Andi Rivarola, President

The San Fernando Valley Iris Society held its first program on January 5th with the program “Los Angeles Native Plant Advocacy: Why and How?” Charles Miller discussed the importance of native plant landscaping to biodiversity, energy and water use, climate change, and other issues you may have never thought were connected.

On February 2nd, Andi Rivarola, Spuria Iris Society President, held a program on spuria iris. The program focused on spuria iris species and the many ways of growing these irises in our gardens.

On March 2nd, Ken, a botanist with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in the Ventura Field Office, will be giving a presentation on Dudleyas, highlighting the vulnerability of many species due to land development and poaching. As poachers often target niche populations of plants, Ken's work is crucial in protecting these important ecosystems.

The April 6th program will focus the club's energy into preparing for the upcoming Region 15 Trek to be held in the area.

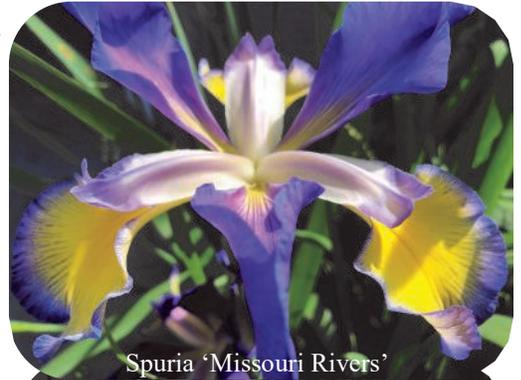

As usual, our May 4th program will primarily focus on putting together a live mini show for beardless irises, primarily spuria and Louisiana irises.

The June program is our "elections night."

Our 2022 season ended in January with review of our 2022 season and planning for our 2023 season. Several Board Members have switched positions within the Board. Our current positions consist of:

President:	-vacant-
Past President:	Dennis Luebkin
1st VP:	Marty Boxer
2nd VP:	Vicki Hughes
Secretary:	Jeri Conklin
Treasurer:	Sherry Williams
Newsletter:	Judy Book

Our membership now stands at 99. The Sculpture Garden at Yavapai College and our other gardens continue undergoing a two-year upgrade to amend soil, upgrade irrigation, provide new planting areas and plant additional irises. Since the Sculpture Garden is adjacent to the fine arts building and theater, the themes for the additional irises will be related to the fine arts: music, art, dance, Broadway, and literature. We added a complete collection of Rick Tasco and Roger Duncan irises to the Sculpture Garden in 2022.

Our education program in the schools will start again this spring. We hope to continue our classes at Yavapai College and begin new classes at the Sharlot Hall Museum.

We currently provide an annual scholarship of $1,000 for horticultural students at Yavapai College. Also, 2023 will be our last year for funding our $10,000 endowment scholarships for horticultural students to honor Francell Edwards, Arizona Hybridizer and friend of PAIS.

We will be returning to our spring iris show, the “Kaleidoscope Of Color,” and potted iris sale on April 29th, and will continue with our July rhizome sale again after a long hiatus due to Covid. Funds raised from our two sales go to support our scholarship programs and food bank charities.

Sun Country Iris Society Report

By Sharon Petterson, President

Sun Country Iris Society has had many opportunities to get together for educational meetings, celebrations, garden tours, hybridizing, and judges training.

Ardi Kary, a longtime member, has focused on growing our own judges and arranged many judges' training sessions over the last years. We have 3 members in higher elevations, so we visit gardens that bloom later than in the Phoenix area. Every year, we have enjoyed going to these gardens for judges training and a delicious lunch - Darol Jurn in Sedona, Hall Bradshaw and Cliff Morris in Payson, and Lyn and Bill DeHaven in Forest Lakes at 7000 feet. We now have 1 Master judge and 9 Garden/Exhibition judges, 2 of which are also Artistic Design judges, as well as 3 apprentice judges.

We have lively monthly meetings at the Valley Garden Center in Phoenix.

SCIS held 4 rhizome sales in the fall with irises dug from members' gardens. We often get new members at the iris sales and share lots of information with many people who comment "I didn't know we could grow irises in the desert."

We hold an annual photo contest and auction new introductions to our members that we purchase from 3 commercial growers. Lifetime relationships are formed through working together in the iris society.

Tucson Area Iris Society Report

By Sue Clark, Secretary

The Tucson Area Iris Society finished strong in the second half of 2022 with annual events: Auction, Sale, Photo Contest, and Potluck. With 30 people at our August Auction, it was the best-attended meeting in many years! Most members went home with new rhizomes to grace their gardens. The Region 15 rhizomes brought in over $1100! We honored one of our deceased members with a collection to rhizomes to distribute to members in her memory. Our Rhizome Sale in September is our big fund-raiser, and this year was no exception with over $3000 to boost our treasury. We donated the 40 rhizomes left at the end of the morning to the nursery who graciously hosts our sale each year. Photos for our Contest are posted on our website and members submit votes via email. Categories are: Individual iris flower or stalk, macro view of an iris flower, and miscellaneous or garden view of iris. Three prizes are bestowed per category. The quality of the photos goes up each year, as members incorporate tips from speakers and articles from the past few years. We held our annual potluck dinner at the home of Bonnie, one of our members. Besides being a social time, we have fun with a plant and seed exchange that has grown through recent years. In January, our president, Kevin, reviewed iris color patterns and forms. In April, we look forward to our first judged show in over ten years. Our newsletter continues to be well-received by members and others.
